Highlights

Board meeting highlights include:

- Holmes said MA had discussions with Leading Edge, a before and after school care provider, which would start once the school's state license was approved.
- The board directed Holmes to return at the Sept. 8 meeting with a memorandum of understanding with Leading Edge that legal counsel had vetted.
- Chief Financial Officer Marc Brocklehurst announced that MA hired Jason "Jake" Dicus as development and mission engagement manager.
- Brocklehurst reported that the county is assisting
- McCuen noted that on Aug. 30 the School Advisory and Accountability Committee would meet and

MA with getting its request for a bid on work on the Highway 105 recirculation plan on a government site that will reach a larger audience, hopefully in the fall.

begin discussing the school's Uniform Improvement Plan.

- Buczkowski reported for the Finance Committee that the D38 mill levy override, if passed, would improve MA's metrics and allow it to borrow more for phase 2. MA has other plans for phase 2 with a smaller scope if it does not pass.
- Board member Danny O'Brien said a vulnerability assessment would be conducted by the Colorado Department of Education on Sept. 1 on the East campus, followed by the West campus.
- The board agreed to add two fundraisers to the campus calendar for Grandparents Day and a gala.

The MA School Board meets at 6 p.m. on the second Thursday of each month. The next regular board meeting will be on Thursday, Sept. 8, at 6 p.m. on the East Campus. See more information at https://bit.ly/ma-boe.

asked for a board retreat for further discussion. Trustee Karen Stuth said she saw no purpose in further delay.

Bass suggested the board direct staff to start discussions with The Carter Payne and the Willans, who had agreed to combine their plans. He emphasized this was not a formal award, but a request to start a negotiation.

Havenar moved to begin negotiations with The Carter Payne. To loud applause from the residents present, the board voted unanimously in favor of Havenar's

Retail cannabis sale heads to ballot

At its Aug. 11 meeting, the board tabled the discussion of an ordinance that amended the town's current code in such a way that retail cannabis sales would have become legal. Had the board voted in favor of the ordinance,
