

Monument Hill Kiwanis sponsors North Pole Craft Fair, Dec. 3

Above: On Dec. 3, the Monument Hill Kiwanis Club presented the 16th annual North Pole at Tri-Lakes Arts and Crafts Fair at the Grace Best education center, 66 Jefferson St. in Monument. A variety of arts and crafts were featured, and the “Cookie Walk” returned. Live music entertained visitors throughout the event. Below: RF Smith greeted visitors and explained how the Monument Hill Kiwanis Club contributes to our community and its youths. Photos by Steve Pate.

Left: Mahlon Lang of the Monument Hill Kiwanis Club was one of the members who rang the bell for the Salvation Army during the holiday season. Club members act as bell ringers outside King Soopers and Walmart in Monument from the day after Thanksgiving through Christmas Eve. Overall, Kiwanis volunteers contribute over 750 hours each year to this project. All proceeds are donated to the Salvation Army. Photo by Bob Harrigan.
