

Good things come to those who wait.

Those people with the petition clipboards sure are in a rush to get your signature so they can try once more to permanently change Colorado's laws and constitution. In their haste, they're not telling you about the devastating consequences some amendments could have for our whole state—lost revenues for schools and local governments. Higher taxes. Wait a minute! Who wants to sign up for all that?

READ BEFORE YOU
sign

Readb4YouSign.org

