tention was to put the issue of the department's future before the voters.

Councilperson Paul Banta added that he wanted to keep the Fire Department as a part of the town. He said the town had underfunded it for years, and he was determined to understand the required level of funding to keep it local. He noted that Dan Qualman, a consultant hired by the town to help them plan the future of the department, thought up to 45 mills would need to be added to the town's taxes to fund keeping the department local. Banta ended by saying that no merger would be put in place that night.

Alternative plan presented

Ball and Oesterreich took the floor to present a plan that they argued would allow the town to retain control over its Fire Department and yet spend less
