Above: Cindy Allen, on behalf of the Palmer Lakes Parks Commission, said it had been surveying the community on what they would like to see done in the parks. This information is being gathered for use in an upcoming GOCO grant the commission will submit. Allen displayed a presentation board with some of the items the committee is considering for each of the town parks. Ideas range from improvements to the tennis courts, new pickleball courts, improved parking, benches, a multi-purpose field, sledding hills, and new restrooms. The commission has received 200 responses so far. The survey is available at www.bit.ly/pl-park-survey. Photo by Jackie Burhans.

approve Resolution 42-2022, which documents the town's decision not to participate in the program.

Special events approved
The town approved a special event permit for a Business Workshop hosted by the Palmer Lake Economic Development Group (PLEDG). The workshop will be held on Oct. 5 from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Town Hall and is open to all current Palmer Lake business owners and to anyone considering starting a business. Breakfast and lunch will be provided with the assistance of one of the town's newest business, Sasquatch and Yeti Taqueria. Speakers will address a variety of topics.

A special event permit was also approved for the YMCA's annual Creepy Crawly 5K Run, to be held at the Palmer Lake Recreation Area on Oct. 29 starting at 7 a.m. Costumes are encouraged.

Use of TLCA as residence questioned
During the public comment portion of the Sept. 22 meeting, resident Roger Mosely voiced concerns about the fact that TLCA is being used as a residence in violation of the town's codes. He said the issue had been going on for five months and he had communicated to the board and the town staff about the issue several times. He said he wanted to see the TLCA preserved as an art center for the town. Mosely said he did not care if the TLCA was used as a residence if changes to the building were properly permitted.

Budget, master plan, candidate forum scheduled
Collins reminded the board that some scheduled 3% increases in the town's water fees had not been made and that would impact the town's budget. Havenar pointed out that without the increases the town would not be able to meet the balloon payment for the second water tank in 2024.
