Vacation gift for staff
In January, LaKind offered to gift town staff with two weeks' paid vacation as amends for "low morale" during December's independent investigation. Town Manager Mike

Foreman brought several suggestions of how to implement this gift while explaining several of the problems associated with it. Questions of administration, fairness, equitability, and whether productivity would remain high were discussed. Public safety for granting free vacation to water and police departments was also a concern. A total of four options were offered with the strongest recommendation being accepted by the council: Close town hall intermittently (10 separate eight-hour days) and provide Water and Police Department employees with 80 hours of
