

gation; E. Water— improvements otherwise dependent on increased tax burden. Or minimal maintenance will continue to rely on unpredictable/limited grant-funding and tapped-out volunteers.

No local rules for control? Where is the first line of defense when the new neighbors (who moved in because small-town Colorado is “wide open,” is off the beaten path with easy access to I-25/between two major cities, has a minimal/under-funded police department, and has no legal marijuana sales competition) are cooking explosive THC oil in their basement or illegally selling their over-the-limit grow and edibles next door?

The constitutional issue is one that is not ripe until the passage of Issue 301.” Judge Joe Cannon, hearing officer appointed by the Town of Palmer Lake. (10/22/2014)
