

Above: The Colorado Field Army Band plays a selection of favorites Aug. 2 for the crowd at the 2014 Palmer Lake Chautauqua Festival in the gazebo outside the Town Hall. Photo and caption by Jackie Burhans.

Above: President Teddy Roosevelt discusses politics with a young admirer Aug. 2 at the 2014 Palmer Lake Chautauqua Festival. Photo and caption by Jackie Burhans.

Above: Historically costumed characters Buffalo Bill Cody and a lady friend pose for pictures and chat with visitors on the Green at Palmer Lake at the Chatauqua gathering. Behind the characters is the historic Palmer Lake jail. Photo and caption by Janet Sellers.

Above: Tri-Lakes area residents build kinetic boats for the Labor Day Kinetic Sculpture race. All boats required use of bicycle inventions for transport. Several vehicles are pictured preparing to race from Monument to Palmer Lake along the Santa Fe Trail. At the same time, a street fair in Limbach Parc included a corn hole contest, kids' games, kiosks, and a beer garden. Left: Fuel Church and Right: Turbo's Mobile RV Service boats. Photo and caption by Janet Sellers.

Above: Superintendent Karen Brofft receives a mug from President Elect Harry Brandon at the Monument Hill Kiwanis Meeting on Saturday, August 31, 2014 after she provides approximately 90 members with information about her leadership philosophy and status of the D-38 School District. She was former Assistant Superintendent in the Englewood School District and holds an Education Specialist degree in Administrative Leadership and in Policy Studies. Karen is the newest member of the Monument Hill Kiwanis Club. Photo by Warren Gerig

Above: The Tri-Lakes Lions Club Vice President Ken Borrow presents a $2,000 check to the Tri-Lakes Cares representative Erin Taylor for supporting the purchase of medical test strips to detect and help prevent diabetes related eye disease. The funds were a result of the Tri-Lakes Lions Club Golf Tournament which also included our Military Appreciation fund raiser for Home Front Cares. Lions Clubs are providing vision support for those in need all over the world by combating eye diseases, creating infrastructure to improve eye care delivery, increasing the number of trained eye care professionals and making vision care more equitable and sustainable. Information provided by Gordon Reichal.