Anderson noted that being told that we have no hope of changing things might be what discourages resident involvement and that she wanted to have a voice in this community. Vice President Erik Stensland said it is important that people have a voice, and noted that one of his goals for the year is to revise the covenants. He recommended that to make change might take getting together a grassroots movement and volunteering to help rewrite the covenants. Anderson noted that this is a larger issue than chickens, and that it would be wonderful to see the community grow and attitudes changed so we can fill the auditorium at these meetings.

Board member appointed and roles assigned

President Jim Hale nominated Jennifer Cunningham to fill the WIA board vacancy that was left when Dick Green resigned after selling his house. Hale noted that the position had been vacant for two months and that, per the Woodmoor Bylaws, Article 9 Section 6, the board may appoint a successor to fill the remainder of the term of a director who resigns. Cunningham will fill the newly created role of Community Outreach, with Vice President Stensland retaining responsibility for Forestry.

Cunningham spoke briefly on her background.

She and her husband Jim and two children moved here in 2009 from a stint at the Pentagon. They are both retired from the Air Force. Six months ago she realized that Woodmoor was not part of the city of Monument and began to learn more, interviewing each of the trustees from Monument. She realized that a lot of what happens in Monument can affect Woodmoor and approached Hale about more formal representation with the Town of Monument. She will be a community liaison and hopes to find a way to communicate better between the WIA board and the Town of Monument. The motion to appoint Cunningham as a board director was unanimously approved.
